Welcome to Dover Sign

If you've driven past BrewVino and Grandview Golf Course recently, you may have noticed something new greeting you as you enter the Township – our brand-new “Welcome to Dover” sign!

This exciting addition is the result of a true community collaboration led by the Township's ICDC Committee and Eagle Scout candidate Erich Pike. As part of his Eagle Scout Project, Erich took on the challenge of creating a sign that not only welcomes visitors, but also reflects Dover Township's strong sense of place and community pride... “Common Ground” comes from Dover's 2020 Joint Comprehensive Plan – a joint effort between Dover Township, Dover Borough, and the Dover Area School District.

Website Redesign

We are excited to announce that a newly redesigned website will be launching at the end of March 2026!

The goal of this update is to make it faster and easier for residents, businesses and visitors to find the information they need.

Why Wasn't I Informed?

Understanding Zoning & Development Notices in Dover Township.

A common question we hear is: “Why didn't I get notified about that project?”

The answer often comes down to what Pennsylvania law requires – and what it does not.
