September is National Preparedness Month

The Shrewsbury Area Centennial Lions Club is hosting a Preparedness Presentation

WHERE: Shrewsbury Township building, 12341 Susquehanna Trail S, Glen Rock, PA 17327. The township campus is located south of the Markets at Shrewsbury at Hametown Park.

WHEN: Saturday, September 19, 2026 beginning at 10:00AM

The featured speaker will be South Central York County Emergency Management Agency Coordinator Stanton Walters. Mr. Walters will speak about our most frequent local threats, natural and man-made. Then he will address individual and family preparedness, including practical things people can do to prepare for and respond to these and other events.

There will be handouts of helpful information for people to take with them at the conclusion of the event.

Seating is limited. Please reserve a spot by signing up below.
