

The Moulstown Affair:

The Murder of Christianna Harmon

Presented by Tracy Crouse, SGAFHS

This presentation focuses on the brutal murder of Christianna Harmon, a Moulstown mother whose body was found on December 8th, 1878 along what is now Moulstown Road. It will discuss:

- The events leading up to the crime.
- The suspects, motives, and details from the April 1879 court trial.
- The community's reaction and lasting folklore.

The case remains unsolved and surrounded by superstition. Join us as we separate myth from fact.
