

Please join us for Blue Christmas on Sunday, December 22 at 6 pm.

(A light supper of soup will be served.)

Blue Christmas (also called the Longest Night) in the Western Christian tradition is a day marking the longest night of the year. On this day, some churches hold a service that honors people that have lost loved ones and may be experiencing grief or may be experiencing sadness at this time of year.

Bruceville-Eddy United Methodist Church

404 W. 3rd Street, Eddy, TX 76524

254-859-3330