

Heroes Come In All Sizes

A Puppet Show For The Whole Family

North Wales Arts & Cultural Center

Sunday, May 3rd, 2PM

Reach for the Stars Puppet Productions™ with puppeteer MomMom Nonna, presents an imaginative puppet show inspired by the classic fable,

"The Lion and the Mouse."

The king of the jungle believes he needs help from no one, especially a tiny, carefree mouse.
What will the Lion do when he finds himself trapped and in need of help? Will the tiny Mouse come to the rescue?

This delightful story teaches us to believe in ourself and proves that kindness is the greatest strength.

Enjoy the unique instrumental storytelling and creative puppetry.
Before the show the audience is introduced to the handcrafted stage, puppets, and props. After the show, there's always a song to 'shake the sillies off' along with a "backstage pass" to see where the puppets hang out and the real magic happens — an audience favorite!
