Press Release: Levy County Board of County Commissioners to Hold a Joint Workshop with Cedar Key City Commission.

Date of Issue:

Levy County, FL — The Levy County Board of County Commissioners will hold a joint workshop with the Cedar Key City Commission on Tuesday, August 4, to discuss current and planned County projects within the City of Cedar Key.

During the workshop, County staff will provide updates on ongoing and upcoming projects, including each project's scope, timeline, estimated costs, and current status. The workshop is designed to ensure both governing boards receive the same information, fostering collaboration and coordinated planning for projects that will impact the Cedar Key community.

The public is encouraged to attend and observe the workshop. This meeting offers residents an opportunity to learn more about current and future County investments in Cedar Key and the collaborative efforts between Levy County and the City to address community needs.
