Borough of Langhorne PENNSYLVANIA

Where History & Community Meet

RE: 2025 Local Earned Income Tax Filing Update

Dear Residents

Langhorne Borough would like to share an important update from Keystone Collections Group regarding the filing of 2025 Local Earned Income Tax Returns.

The deadline for filing 2025 Local Earned Income Tax Returns, including extensions, was October 15, 2026. Keystone Collections Group has completed its processing of the extensions and has begun identifying taxpayers who have not filed their 2025 local earned income tax return and/or have outstanding tax payments.

What Residents Should Expect

Over the next several weeks, residents who have not filed their 2025 local earned income tax return and/or have not paid their 2025 local earned income taxes may receive a notice and tax return forms by mail from Keystone Collections Group.

If you receive a notice, please review it carefully and take the appropriate steps to address any outstanding filing or payment requirements.

How to File or Get Assistance

Residents can conveniently and securely file their local earned income tax returns online through Keystone Collections Group:

- Online Filing: efile.KeystoneCollects.com
- Website and Frequently Asked Questions: www.KeystoneCollects.com
- Taxpayer Services: 724-978-0300

Please be advised that Langhorne Borough does not administer local earned income tax filings. Residents with questions regarding their filing status, tax liability, payments, or notices should contact Keystone Collections Group directly.

We encourage all residents who may have outstanding filing or payment obligations to address them promptly to avoid further notices or potential penalties.

Thank you for your attention and cooperation.