Red Cross Offering Financial Assistance

The American Red Cross has financial assistance available for people whose primary home was destroyed or is unlivable due to hurricane Idalia.

If you believe you have qualifying damage, go to redcross.org/Idalia to make an appointment to meet with the Red Cross in person.

Everyday till Monday Sept. 25th Yankeetown residents can visit with Red Cross Intake Workers (from 11:30am to 7pm) at the Women's Center (5 56th St, Yankeetown, FL 34498) Appointments Encouraged, Walk-ins welcome.

To be eligible for this program, households must meet these three requirements:

- Your pre-disaster primary residence (renter or homeowner) is in a confirmed disaster-impacted geographic area in Florida or Georgia and is either destroyed or has sustained significant structural damage that requires extensive repairs, or the damage is so severe that repairs are not feasible.
  - This may include substantial failure of the roof, walls, or foundation, or a water line above 18 inches.
- You must be able to provide proof of identity and residence.

We encourage people to apply for federal Disaster Assistance at disasterassistance.gov or by calling 800-621-3362. However, approval for FEMA assistance is not a requirement to receive Red Cross financial assistance.

If you have questions about American Red Cross financial assistance or other services call 1-800-RED CROSS (800-733-2767)
