

Just a quick heads up for Inglis residents- as you know, we are in the process of restarting all our pumps and filtration systems to get us back 100% on our own wells. Over the next several days, you may notice a mixture of Inglis and Yankeetown water as we restart and resettle our various filtration systems. Just wanted to let you know where we were and how we are doing. Thanks for your patience. Harry B