

Revolutionary War Soldiers Burial Site Commemoration

Saturday, September 26, 2026

Remembrance & History

Featuring...

American Legion Jesse W. Soby Post and Revolutionary Musket Soldiers (Marbleheaders)

★ Re-enactors

★ Honor Guard

★ Fife and Drum

★ Rifle Squad

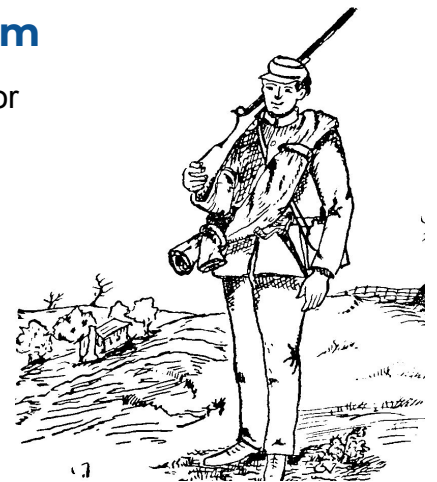

10:30 AM: Commemoration Ceremony

- ★ Re-enactors Arrive — Meet re-enactment soldiers in authentic period attire!
- 🇺🇸 God Bless America — Honor our nation in music and words..
- 💣 Gunfire Salute & Taps — Experience a moving tribute to those who served and sacrificed.
- 📖 History of the Cemetery — Discover the stories: about how it came about, how it was forgotten, and how it was nearly lost.

11:15 AM – 1:00 PM: Children's Living History Program

- ✍️ Children's Program Registration — Sign up your young historians for an unforgettable hands-on experience! (recommended ages 3 - 13)
- ✍️ Register like a real soldier using an authentic feather quill pen!
- 👢 Learn to march like soldiers from days gone by.
- 🎭 Handle wooden musket props and experience a taste of military life.
- 🇺🇸 Learn, march, and discover history firsthand!

Honor the past. Inspire the future!

Parking: Revolutionary War Burial Site: 340 S Bellevue Ave, Langhorne, PA

Overflow Parking: Jesse W. Soby Post 148, 115 W Richardson Ave, Langhorne, PA

*Sponsored by: Langhorne Open Space Land Trust, Inc.,
In cooperation with Langhorne Borough's 150th Anniversary Celebration*