

The background of the poster is decorated with various watercolor illustrations of autumn foliage and natural elements. At the top left, there are large, vibrant orange and red oak leaves. To their right is a branch with smaller, yellow-green leaves. Further right are two acorns with textured caps. On the far right, a cluster of small, round, orange berries is shown. On the left side, there are more clusters of berries, including purple ones and red ones. At the bottom, there are more leaves in shades of yellow, orange, and red, along with several mushrooms in various sizes and colors, including orange and yellow ones. The overall theme is autumnal and natural.
