Good Road (Route 2071) Bridge Open to Traffic in Lower Chanceford Township, York County

The bridge had been closed since July of 2023.

Harrisburg, PA – The Pennsylvania Department of Transportation (PennDOT) announced today announced that a bridge on Good Road (Route 2071) is open to traffic in York County. The bridge spans the West Branch of Toms Run between Frosty Hill Road and Stewart Road in Lower Chanceford Township.

The bridge had been closed since July of 2023 after deterioration was discovered during a bridge inspection.

This project consists of repairing an existing rolled steel I-beam bridge including deck repairs and overlay, painting steel beams, minor repairs to masonry and guiderail, placement of rock protection, and other miscellaneous construction.

Lobar Site Development Corporation of Dillsburg is the contractor on this $1,250,829 project. The contractor began bridge work in early March 2026.
