Meeting Called to Order

This is the first Joint meeting held together with W.A.R., Inglis Commission, and Yankeetown Council to discuss the issues and solutions to the river. As these organizations discuss please be courteous and allow for dialogue to continue so that solutions are found. This is a Workshop and there will be no votes at this event.

Agenda:

1. Introduction of WAR Members, Inglis Commission, & Yankeetown Council
2. Discussion concerning future solutions to the Withlacoochee River
 - a. What are the issues with the river?
 - b. What are long standing solutions to these issues?
 - c. What organization is best suited to lead these efforts and receive funding from private, state or federal organizations?
 - i. Should a municipality take the lead or should a committee be put together?
3. Public Comment on items discussed today.
